Subject: Questions from SA Jewish Report

Dear Mr Cameron

I hope you are well.

I am a freelance journalist for the SA Jewish Report and I'm writing an update for the paper on the Bobroff case.

I understand the 'Red Notices' were issued two years ago and I read your letter to Moneyweb, but we still need to write an update for the community here , who are obviously concerned about this.

I'm not sure if you or the Bobroffs can answer the following questions:

- 1) Is it likely that the Bobroffs will be extradited to stand trial in South Africa?
- 2) Are the Red Notices of consequence or no consequence, from you and their perspective?
- 3) Is there anything they would like to say to the SA Jewish community?
- 4) What is the best outcome for the Bobroffs at this stage?
- 5) Anything else you or the Bobroffs would like to add.

I understand it is evening in Sydney right now, but please can you get back to me asap - by 9am Wed morning SA time at the latest.

Many thanks,
Tali Feinberg
