Subject: Tony Beamish

Dear Mr Bobroff,

You might be surprised to receive an email from me. I am writing to you to express my sincere sympathy to what my mother Cora van der Merwe and Tony Beamish have done to you and your family. It was malicious and unfair. My mother is not a bad person but Tony has ever since brainwashed her to destroy people wherever she goes. I could never understand why he had such a hold on her.

She had even confessed to me that she should've never provided him with any information on your firm. He was also the one to press my mother to file charges against Paul O'Sullivan so that he could have a story to write about. Tony traumatised her severely with that scenario to please his own agenda. He actually received a warning from Carte Blanche after he wrote malicious comments about O'Sullivan on Twitter last year.

You'd probably be pleased to hear that you and your son are all that Tony can talk about. I have always found his obsession with you quite strange. He is the most malicious person I have ever come across. He brags about being the reason that your son is only an Uber driver and that he phoned the school your grandchildren attends to cause trouble. This, per se, says a lot about a person's character and it will surely catch up with him. When I confronted my mother about this she said that Tony is apparently part of a group of 6 people appointed by Discovery to spy on you. I doubt this is the case but I have been wondering what Carte Blanche's reaction would be if they'd hear about this alleged "spy mission" of his. Another extremely amusing thing about Tony is that he had even claimed to be a Barrister when I first met him. He has a habit of lying about having tertiary qualifications.

Tony has recently moved to Centurion because he claims that you have sent him death threats. I find it extremely amusing. When I told my father about this ridiculous circus he laughed and said that "if Mr Bobroff wants to get rid of Tony, he would not play around with threats".

Tony has made my mother extremely emotionally dependant on him. He is such a coward to the extent that he cannot even offer to pay for his own meals at a restaurant. He would also constantly use my mother's Twitter account to post things about you because he is too much of a coward to do it in his own name. She has to constantly remove his postings. He had also previously made it a habit of creating false profiles to send you messages anonymously.

He has a severe drinking problem which causes him to harass me. He would also unlawfully record me and blackmail me by threatening to send it to people I know to humiliate me. Today I have decided to fill out an application form to obtain a protection order against him. I am a final year law student and I need peace in my life to complete my degree. Unfortunately my mother has threatened to leave me destitute if I choose to go through with it but I will not let this man destroy my life anymore. If I can ever assist you in any way to sort out this person, please don't hesitate to contact me. He flourishes on destroying people.

Have a blessed Hanukkah!
Kind Regards

Michelle
